~~PROPOSED~~ ORDER CONTINUING
SENTENCING TO JANUARY 20, 2011

The defendant pled guilty on September 8, 2010 to the Indictment charging him with being an illegal alien in possession of a firearm, and sentencing was set for November 4, 2010. In order to allow for completion of the presentence investigation report, the sentencing was subsequently rescheduled to December 14, 2010, with the understanding that the Court would need to limit the hearing strictly to one hour. However, the defendant currently anticipates calling a witness to testify regarding the application of the appropriate offense level under the Sentencing Guidelines; and the government anticipates calling a rebuttal witness. As such, the parties believe that the sentencing is likely to take more than one hour to complete. In consultation with the probation officer, the parties now stipulate that the sentencing shall be
